I have passed scores of villages and spent the night on farms in the provinces of Pskov, Novgorod, Tver, Moscow and Petrograd.

Strangely enough the peasants have little more food than the town workers. True, between the Esthonian frontier and Pskov the peasants have plenty of black bread, but elsewhere there is none. The Bolsheviks of the towns, while they have given the peasants the land, have taken their food.

CHURCH CURING CANCER WITH SYRUP, HE SAYS

(By International News Service)
NEW YORK, June 21 -- 'The church of today is trying to cure cancer with soothing syrup. It is sprinkling perfume on the polecat of social sin. It is time for the preachers to tell the truth to their congregations, to sound the warning," said Dr. John Roach Stratton, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church of New York. Dr. Stratton recently stirred New York by visiting a number of restaurants and cabarets, sampling the liquor sold there in defiance of the prohibition law, and in his Easter night sermon describing what he saw and where he saw it, giving names and addresses.
